While living at the Abbey, Byron found a human skull of peculiar whiteness which he concluded had belonged to a friar. He sent the skull to London with orders to cut it in half and to have one half elegantly mounted.

FOR FOOTBALL
BATTLE TODAY

(By Associated Press)
SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 3.—When Hugo Bezdek's Penn State football team trots on the field here today in a game against the University of Washington, western football adherents will see a team noted for several peculiarities in gridiron play. One is that Bezdek has ever been an exponent of fitness and he attempts to start a team that is in perfect physical condition and play this team through the entire game. He has demonstrated that this system is good, if results are to be taken into consideration, for the team has not met defeat this season and has only one tie, that with Harvard which went to a 21-21 score.

Burglars Don't Seek the Light!

Darkness is their stock in trade. They work by stealth—unheard and unseen—their movements cloaked in secrecy. It's honest folks that see the light. They are the only ones who can risk it.

It's the same way in business. The merchant who is not sure of his goods does not dare to advertise. Advertising would hasten the end of his business career—put him to a test he could not meet.

The merchant who advertises, deliberately invites your inspection. He tells you about his product and then lets it stand on its own merits. You can depend on him. He knows his product is good.

That's one reason why it pays you to read the advertisements in THE BONANZA. It is through advertising that you are able to keep in touch with the good things that progressive business houses are spending their money to introduce and keep before you.

Advertisements are interesting, instructive and profitable. They throw a powerful light on the very things that concern you most. READ THEM!
